

Give a Legacy Gift in Memory of the Life and Legacy of Lillie “Momma Mae” Parker

On December 10, 2022, Lillie Mae Parker, passed away at the age of 90. Affectionately called “Momma Mae” by those who knew her, she lived her life sharing love and helping those in need.

After retiring, in 1998, she helped her daughter Evangeline create the Miss Teen Promise Female Preparatory & Scholarship program and the Miss Teen Promise Southeast Arkansas program in 2005. For 22 years, she inspired the Miss Teen Promise girls to be all God created them to be and invested financially in their education.

Every year, she looked forward to being in the audience to cheer for every contestant and her children who volunteered.

Prior to her departure from her home on earth to her heavenly home, she shared with her family and friends, “I don’t want to miss the Miss Teen Promise program.”

Her battle with cancer is over, but her light of love, strength, courage, kindness and inspiration will forever shine through her children and all who came to know her.

In memory of her dedicated service and living a life of helping and inspiring others, the Lillie “Momma Mae” Parker Life Toucher Memorial Scholarship will be presented to a Miss Teen Promise Mother & Daughter Team beginning September 23, 2023, at the 23rd Annual Miss Teen Promise Scholarship Competition.

Family and friends help continue the legacy by supporting the Lillie “Momma Mae” Parker Life Toucher Memorial Scholarship Fund benefiting the Miss Teen Promise Female Preparatory & Scholarship Program, a non-profit 501 © 3 organization. Donations are tax-deductible.
